

Hot holiday toys

NEW YORK — The annual hot holiday toy list from trade magazine Toy Wishes confirmed how tech-savvy children have become: seven out of the 12 toys featured to be this year's most popular are hooked to either a computer or TV screen.

"Today, kids have iPods and cell phones," said Jim Silver, editor-in-chief of Toy Wishes, which based its list on the publication's review of thousands of toys and interviews with retailers.

Here are some of the hot toys:
