"OK dolls-- Karito Kids, and this is by KidsGive. What I love about this doll is that each comes from a different country, they've got a book, a story, that comes with them. But with part of the purchase you can go online and donate part of the price to charity." -Lee Woodruff (GMA Life & Family Contributor)

"Oh that's nice. And they're very realistic." -Host

"They are very realistic. Look at their faces, their faces are very realistic. And there is a whole story that goes along with them." -Lee Woodruff (GMA Life & Family Contributor)
