Karito Kids Zoe – New York City by KidsGive

Zoe from New York City is oh-so bohemian. She loves designing her own fashion flair taken from local flea markets, which she self-proclaims as the “Zoe” factor. Zoe’s father passed away when she was 7, but Zoe maintains a bright and positive outlook on life. Since her father’s death, her family is strapped for cash — causing her and her mother to move from the place she loves the most. Zoe discovers a possibility of finding the secret to staying in the Big Apple. Launch date: July/August 2007. (Price: $99.99; Age: 6 and Up)
