

Toy Fair 2008 Post Event Special Feature

Toy Fair '08 was an experience that has not been seen any many a year with no snow and show floors that were packed to the limit! This article is to provide a brief glimpse of the experience both in text and image for your enjoyment.

Article by: Rev. James G.W. Fisher - Product Evaluation Specialist

Article Date: 03/4/2008

Toy Fair '08 Was As Busy As Time Square This Year!

Although Toy Fair may have been hit hard over the past few years due to snow and "other" issues of concern, Toy Fair '08 was practically as busy as Time Square this year! It has been years since I have seen such a busy show floor as I saw at this show. Plenty of innovative new concepts in innovative design for toys, games, and everything in-between. In the images below you can see a glimpse of some of the many colorful sights that were at Toy Fair '08.

As is easy to see from the images above, there was so much to capture attention and plenty of proof that Toy Fair '08 was well worth attending/exhibiting for many. If you would like to know more about any of the companies featured in these images, just click on the image to visit their web site!

THE GALLERY

For those of you who were unable to make it to our event, we have provided the images you see below, to gain a feel for this magnificent event. Each of the images is a direct link to the company which is featured in each image. We strongly suggest you visit each one to gain a greater understanding of the incredible array of innovative new products which were available for hands on experience for press and buyers alike to enjoy.

